Gemini is getting over a dozen new connected apps - here's the list

ACTION STEPS

- ✓ But Google's Gemini is finally tackling this, expanding with over a dozen new app integrations that truly connect to your digital life.
- ✓ This isn't just about questions; it makes Gemini a central hub. Your AI directly interacts with tools you already use, streamlining workflows.
- ✓ Imagine: booking tickets, finding local services, or scheduling appointments, all without leaving Gemini. No more app-hopping! Which would you connect first?
- ✓ The confirmed list includes Ticketmaster, Angi for home services, and Zocdoc for healthcare. It's rolling out, so watch your Gemini app for updates!

PRO TIP:

Always update your Gemini app to the latest version to access new features like these integrations.
